

Global Warming PowerPoint Presentations

Alaska Conservation Solutions has delivered global warming PowerPoint presentations to hundreds of audiences in Alaska, California, Montana, North Dakota, New Hampshire, West Virginia and Washington DC. We hope that you will consider presenting all or part of the PowerPoint presentation to friends, family, organizations, and others. It is so important to get these facts out!

Please download the presentation to your computer by clicking on the link below. Keep in mind that these are large files and will take some time to download. If you have difficulties downloading, please contact us by e-mail or by phone at (907) 929-9370, and we will send a CD copy via US postal service free of charge.

Thank you for being a part of the global warming solution.
